INTRODUCTION

In modern times, the changing parties between men and women have created some adverse effects on the marriage institution. In the modern Indian society, values like equality, independence, social justice, and dignity of a person have been adopted. And female-male equality has been established. Similarly, the role of male counterparts in women's status is done. Constitutional values have started to be irrigated by modern education. Women enter various modern businesses. And it increases the proportion of women. Women are beginning to join productive activities.

Under such circumstances, it becomes difficult for the woman to play a role as a homemaker, a wife, and a mother as well as other professional roles outside the house. But women are expected to play such roles too. As a result, the role of women is put in the status of struggle. Also, such women insist on their independent personality and identity. Traditional feminine virtues, which were of authority, have now started to become equality and independence.

In order to satisfy the needs of the sex life and the need for cohorts and how to overcome loneliness in some situations, sometimes adopting a new way of marriage as a way of adapting to the prevailing situation. This new way is to take Leeway Relationships priority to gender equality, independence, freedom, success, careers, adopting this new path. They consider marriage as an abusive, boundless, barrier to careers. Then they deny the necessity of marriage.

❖ LIVE IN RELATIONSHIPS

Live in relation can connect to living sex and sexual intercourse for such periods, they may wish to According to their wishes. Sexual relations between this man and woman is called the opposite sex.

Such vulnerable relatives use artificial contraceptive methods to avoid pregnancy. And in pregnancy to be done they resort to abortion. Thus, with the help of modern and technology, they adopt an alternative non-reproductive life style of choice. Such a lifestyle has started in India, but its circulation is limited. In the future, it can be a big challenge to the marriage institution. There is still a lot of confusion about utility desk-lifelong relationships. When the Supreme Court has given it permission. High court or advocate Sanjay Mehra says that the directive to be taken in different cases of the Supreme Court and the High Court is being confused with the relation of liens. However, no statute has been created so far. Yet many things have become clear. The same is found in the Live in relationship. For example, a person who is related to another woman after marriage cannot be kept in the category of liens Relationships. We should be aware of the rules associated with Live in relationships today.

1- Living in a relation relationship is not a crime. According to Indian law, Live in relationships are valid.

2- If a child is born in Leaven Relationship, then he or she has full authority over the property of his parents.

Joining a

4- If a husband dies due to some reason during the Live in relationship, then a woman may request a partial property.

5- Domestic Violence also applies to statute Live in relationships. Women can demand nutrition for filling for livelihood. What is the Live in Relationships? What is the statute in India? What is the belief in the benefits and losses and people in this (Live in Relationship) people?

1- What is Leviathan Relationships? 2-Leaven Relationship and Distance in Marriage, 3-Livin Relationships on Law, 4- Benefits of live in Relationships, 5- Lien Relationships Loss.

1- What is Leviathan Relationships?

When two young men and women live voluntarily without a married person, they are married to a married couple. Live in relation in today's Indian society is a matter of controversy. Many people show the benefit of this. So many people lose where a large class of society shows this to be a danger to society and human beings. On the other hand, there is also a class that shows this as a combination of change in tradition and pairing it with its freedom

2-Now let's talk about what is the relationship between live in relationship and marriage?

Live in relationship means that a woman and a man do not want to live together in a single home without their marriage. Beginning of Live in Relationships in Metropolitan cities, educated and economically independent people who want to get rid of the bondage of marriage. Such associations may end at any time without the consent of the other party. On the other hand, marriage is not only two people but two families but also two. In marriage, it is believed that the boys and girls are socially built in a formula. Both the bride and the groom is respected and respected. Marriage tradition is running from the inception of Indian society. Most marriages occur between unmarried men and unmarried women.

3-Law on live in Relationships

This relationship has been accepted in the Indian statute. It is not unlawful if both a young man and a youth are willing to live in a lifelong relationship. But according to the Supreme Court, one should have four facts to believe in a legal relation with the law.

1. The young girls living in this relationship have to live like husband wife.

2. Boy's and girl's age should be in accordance with the prescribed laws for marriage.

3. Apart from this, the necessary qualifications should be fulfilled except for a specific age for marriage, as both should be unmarried.

4. Men and women who live in a friendship relationship will have to live like a husband and wife for a long time.

❖ BENEFITS OF LIVE IN RELATIONSHIP

1-Easy to know partners

It is easy to find a partner in a live in relationship. Get a full time to know the partner. In this, you see and understand all the behaviors of the partner closely. Apart from this, you do not even have difficulty in knowing about his personality. While getting married for a day or two, you do not have anything about the front

2-financially dependent

There is no need to become financially burdened by any side in any of these relationships. However, even after the end of the war, there is no financial burden on anyone. In this relationship, you can spend money on your partner with your own will. You are not obliged to spend money on the front.

3- Freedom from False Factors

You do not have to go through a legal process like marriage in Live in Relationship. Apart from this, you have to undergo many legal procedures when the marriage breaks, but it does not make it difficult to eliminate the relationship.

4-Freedom from social obligations

The decision to stay in live in relationships is the liberation from social and family obligations. In such a situation, there is no pressure on you to accept them. Also you can get full time for yourself too.

5-There is no accountability on a subject

You are not accountable for anything after living in a live in relationship. Of course, while on this relationship you talk openly about your work, even then why are you doing such a thing?

6- In this kind of relationship,.

If anybody has any kind of trouble, that person relationship can easily go out. Because of the complete freedom to come out of the relationship, both partners have to pay respect to one another.

❖ SOME OF THE LIVE IN RELATIONSHIPS ARE: HUMANS TOO. HE IS THUS

1- Fear of Unbelief - Those who live in the live relationship are afraid of unbelieving Always. In this relationship, both partners are free to come out of their relationship, so both of them are afraid of this and they are unable to spend their lives happily on their own.

2-Easy to break into a relationship -This is a specialty of live in relationships, but some people consider it a bad thing. Sometimes a partner hurts the other and hurts. In this relationship, the promise and the inevitability depend on your desire. The ease with which you break the relationship, so you come out easily from this. Whereas in marriage you have to go through a variety of legal procedures in the past and in the process of passing pasta, and many times it also takes years in the legal process

3- Having a bad effect on children-It is seen that children living in live in relationships have a bad effect on the mind. Generally, their children do not have respect for the rules. Apart from this, they feel more insecure than other children in society. If their parents separated for any reason, they could not know anything about their family beliefs and needs.

4- Facing social condemnation - Even though living relationships in today's society are rapidly in the middle of the Youth but even today, in Indian society it has not got social recognition .Therefore, those who live in this relationship are seen with a poor view. People living in live relationships do not easily rent their own rooms.

5-made for women is very difficult- In the Indian society today, the mentality of the people has decreased slightly in the mindset, but then many people are encouraging many people. In such a case, if a male partner goes with a live relationship, then women have to face many kinds of harassment. Apart from this, it is also difficult to get a partner again.

❖ CONCLUSION

According to the above discussion, in the Live in relationship, the man / woman gets freedom and can lead a life according to their own desires. India's youngest youths believe in marriage in live life. Young people like me that it is easy to know the partner. He can be self-dependent and get rid of social responsibility. Exemption is also done by law and law. When some people believe me that there is fear of antitrust towards each other in the Live in Relationship. The importance of conflict does not take time, and the importance of conflicts diminishes. When a child born in this conflict has a bad effect. People of Indian society are such that I have to face social condemnation and there is a lot of trouble for women.
