ABSTRACT :

It is without a doubt genuine that education which neglects to advance and grow great values ends up exposed dead information. Education being the dynamic side of logic and a nearby partner of morals ought to edify one to preeminent values, makes arrangement and discovers gadgets for their compatibility by the youthful student. The point of education gets satisfied just when the good and profound parts of our life is perceived and taken after by the student. Unless and until the point when this fundamental part of our life is accounted, for, the point of education gets discharged as well as education itself ends up unproductive and worthless.

KEYWORDS : values of humanism, majority rules system, communism.

INTRODUCTION:

Education should sow and spread the essential values of humanism, majority rules system, communism, secularism and national coordination among the students. This is very fundamental for the acknowledgment of our national goals of building a popularity based view - that is, equity, freedom, club and social equity to all. Education is a procedure by which alluring changes are affected in the student. Esteem education comprises of growing right sentiments and feelings in man. To put it plainly, it is the `training of the heart/mind as it were.

It is properly stated, are an end in themselves and values are the educational values are individual and in addition social. In this way, these educational values have numerous preferences for individual and social life. They are:

1. Advancement of sound and adjusted identity.
2. Ability to gain job and procure material flourishing.
3. Advancement of Vocational effectiveness.
4. Making of good citizenship.
5. Advancement of character.
6. Re-association and re-development of encounters.
7. Change with the earth and its alteration.
8. Satisfaction of the necessities of man.
9. National joining and national advancement.
10. Leaders and talented laborers.
11. Promotion of social proficiency
12. Cultural values.
13. Utilisation of recreation.

These educational values assume a critical part in the life of man. By procuring them, one can lead his own and social life effectively.

Esteem situated education infers creating values through curricular and co-curricular projects in educational establishments. One of the real emergencies is that Indian education directly confronting is esteem weakening, dissolving the very center of human life. It has been felt that the primary concentration amid the most recent three decades has been on quantitative extension of educational establishments and subsequently sufficient consideration couldn't be paid for keeping up models and nature of education.

The yield of the educational framework isn't just of low quality yet the corruption of good values has likewise been taken note. It is likewise contended that insufficient consideration paid to esteem education, particularly in the prior phases of school education, has been the significant reason for declining values. PremKirpal and Tripathi in their papers contend that the destruction of destitution and the advancement of HR can not be accomplished without teaching the feeling of values among the majority.

It is in this setting the schools must assume a fundamental part in granting esteem education. R.C. Mehrotra in his paper on esteem situated education in science and technology accentuates that esteem isn't just imperative at the school level however ought to likewise frame a basic segment of the advanced education too and especially in the field of science and technology. He calls attention to that instructing is regularly in light of the premises that esteem arranged education isn't applicable to the instructing of science and technology.

At the point when education is esteem situated, the whole prospect of education experiences a radical change an extremely glad change to guarantee a nonstop development mentally, socially and profoundly. In the event that the teacher has distinct fascination on values and has confidence in higher reasons forever, he can manage the entire age through his flexible identity. Dr.S.Radhakrishnana and Rabindranath Tagore are current cases of extraordinary teachers who impacted the nation with their rationality of significant worth situated education.
