ABSTRACT

Why is there so much conflict, division and suffering in this world? Those who have striven for peace are rarely celebrated or praised for their efforts even less imitated. Consider that real world peace or peace on Earth is an ideal state of freedom, peace, and happiness among and within all nations and peoples. This ideal of world non-violence provides a basis for peoples and nations to willingly cooperate, either voluntarily or by virtue of a system of governance that prevents warfare. While different cultures, religions, philosophies, and organizations may have differing concepts about how such an ideal state might come about, they have in common this ideal of a cessation of all hostility amongst all humanity. World Peace could be established through religious or secular organizations that address to human rights, technology, education, engineering, medicine, or diplomacy used as an end to all forms of fighting.

KEYWORDS: Cultures, Religions, Philosophies, Cooperate, World Peace.

INTRODUCTION

Can you imagine a world where there isn't any war? No more innocent bloodshed! No more disruption to people's lives! Can you conceive circumstances whereby weapons of mass destruction are no longer necessary? No more threat of doom and annihilation! No more worries about whose finger is on what button!

World peace is a sentiment often expressed these days; whether in prayers at the local church, or as a toast at fashionable dinner parties. It is of course a noble sentiment, and one that is worthy of assertion at every opportunity. But in most cases it is only a sentiment; a philanthropic wish for the good of everyone, yet without any concrete solutions as to how it can be achieved or inaugurated.

The fact is that world peace is not just some desirable concept, wished for by the masses but unattainable in reality; world peace is the normal standard of how things should be on an everyday basis, and the way to achieve it is not so very far out of reach.

Do we imagine that the world is going to continue forever in an endless round of conflicts and disputes resulting in loss of life and bloodshed, or shouldn't we suppose that at some stage in human development everybody is going to become wiser and change things so that these events never happen again? Of course the answer is that sooner or later, world peace is going to be the normal state of affairs in international concerns.

If it is going to happen sooner or later anyway, what is wrong with it happening sooner rather than later? World peace doesn't have to be something our descendants will enjoy at some obscure point in the distant future; world peace can happen here and now, and in our lifetimes. The purpose of this website is to show exactly how world peace can be achieved, and what everyone can do to help achieve it.

The Lord Gautama Buddha says-

"Peace comes from within. Do not seek it without." It's really true as the day when you realized that all the materialized things are nothing but the real happiness lies inside us, and then you will find the exact meaning of peace. The world changes very fast and with this fast world human behaviour is also changes no one have sincerity for others. All they wanted is to become successful, rich, have more and more money. They just crossed the limit of greediness. To become successful, rich it's not a bad things but for these things if u forget about humankind, your real happiness then it's have no meaning. If we have no peace that means we have forgotten we belong to each other.

Peace is something that is begins with a smile. Peace is a state or period in which there is no war with inner self or with others. Sometimes when we do self-introspect we find that our happiness is belongs to small things like seeing the mountains, beautiful sunrise, for doing our interesting things. We don't need so much to being happy we just need a simple one reason for smile. Nothing can bring you peace but yourself.

THE FIVE PRECEPTS

All religions have some basic rules that define what is good conduct? and what kind of conduct should be avoided?. In Buddhism, the most important rules are the Five Precepts. These have been passed down from the Buddha himself.

1. No killing - Respect for life
2. No stealing - Respect for others' property
3. No sexual misconduct - Respect for our pure nature
4. No lying - Respect for honesty
5. No intoxicants - Respect for a clear mind

WORLD WITHOUT WARS

Wars are cruel, where man is pitted against man, killing and maiming each other, during the course of the battles. Having taken birth as human beings, we have to live on this vast earth, enjoying the bounties of Nature in good will and amity with the others, but man unfortunately seems to find pleasure in waging wars, Killing and destroying his fellowmen.

ECONOMIC JUSTICE

Economic equality among the people is imperative. Money is only a token of labour, in the field of economics.

AN UPRIGHT JUDICIARY

An upright judiciary is an essential part of the society. Hence it is the duty of the Judiciary to interpret the laws in a manner suitable to the people.

ONE WORLD FEDERAL GOVERNMENT

The move to a ONE WORLD FEDERAL GOVERNMENT has been carefully planned, slowly conditioning people, moving them step-by-step towards public acceptance of a one world government. We are being conditioned similar to the story of a frog in a pan of water with fire beneath it. The frog will remain in the heating pan as the water temperature rises and finally scalds the frog to death. The frog will not move, gradually becoming accustomed to the heat. And the frog is comfortable. However, if you were to throw a frog into a pan of hot water, the frog would jump out.

The quality of Human life has been deteriorating over the years due to the evil deeds of man and it is important that the people being to live according to the teachings of the enlightened persons.

RESPECTING WOMENHOOD

Respect for women was another most cherished value of life from times immemorial in India. Women were not considered as an object of physical pleasure by man, but were regarded as divine treasures for family life. In view of the role assigned by nature to mothers, and in view of the fact that the mother is the dearest person on earth to an individual and in view of the intense love and affection of a mother for her children, and her readiness to make tremendous sacrifices for the sake of her children the mother came to be regarded as God incarnate (Mata, Pratyaksha & Devatha). Further, as every woman is a potential mother, the cultural value evolved was to treat mother as God and to treat every woman except one's wife, as mother.

LIVING ACCORDING TO THE DIVINE LAWS

Religion recognizes man's susceptibility to become entangled in "imaginary and false discrimination" made up of what earthly life terms as "good or bad, likes and dislikes". People, thus, are not free to handle things from the perspective of Truth.

SPORTS ONLY FOR CHILDREN

Sports, no longer is an entertainment in today's world, where feelings of rivalry, anger and jealousy have begun rules the games. Further, sporting activities can cause irreparable damage to the muscles, tendons or nerves in the adults. Therefore sports should have only for the children.

TEACHING THE PRICIPALES OF CAUSE AND EFFECTS

A cause and effect analysis is an attempt to understand why things happen as they do. People in many professions - accident investigators, scientists, historians, doctors, newspaper reporters, automobile mechanics, educators, police detectives - spend considerable effort trying to understand the causes and effects of human behaviour and natural phenomena to gain better control over events and over ourselves. If we understand the causes of accidents, wars, and natural disasters, perhaps we can avoid them in the future. If we understand the consequences of our own behaviour, perhaps we can modify our behaviour in a way that will allow us to lead happier, safer lives.

Example

Cause	Effect
Earthquakes Erosion Heavy Rain	Mudslides

EXPOUNDING THE PRICIPLE OF MAGNETISM

Magnetism is a powerful phenomenon that plays an important role in nature, yet man remains ignorant of it, despite the progress achieved by science. This principal of magnetism has to be explained to the people, without delay.

FOOD AND WATER MADE COMMON TO ALL

Food and water are imperative for human survival. They are the gifts of nature, and no man or a group of people should claim it as their own. They have to be made available to all, to be enjoyed at will, just like the air and sunlight in nature.

ESCHEWING THE CONCEPT OF MANY GODS

The Divine state is supreme in the Universe as well as in the life of the human being, existing as a fraction in every human being. It is singular and people have to be made aware of this fact to prevent religious animosity and ill will.

CONCLUSION

World Peace can be achieved, when in each person, the power of love replaces the love of power. We can't obtain peace in the outer World, until we make peace ourselves. Are we all not Human, then why can't we live in peace?
