INTRODUCTION

The name of Haryana immediately invokes the picture of a State which amazingly joins both-relic and bounty. The Vedic place that is known for Haryana has been a support of Indian culture and human progress. Indian conventions view this district as the lattice of formation of northern special stepped area' where Brahma played out the unblemished penance and made the universe. This hypothesis of creation has been affirmed to a vast degree by archeological examinations did by Guy E. Explorer in 1915, who has built up that 15 million years back, early man lived in the Haryana Shivaliks. The Vamana Purana expresses that King Kuru furrowed the field of Kurukshetra with a brilliant plowshare drawn by the Nandi of Lord Shiva and recovered a region of seven Kosas. Packed with fantasies, legends and vedic references, Haryana's past is saturated with greatness. It was on this dirt that holy person Ved Vyas composed Mahabharata. It was here, 5,000 long years back that Lord Krishna lectured the good news of obligation to Arjuna at the on set of the extraordinary clash of Mahabharata:"Your right is to carry out your responsibility and not to fret over the organic products (Outcome) thereof !" Since at that point, this reasoning of the amazingness of obligation has turned into a reference point to succeeding ages.

The Mahabharata knows Haryana as the place that is known for copious grains (Bahudhanyaka) and monstrous wealth (Bahudhana). Before the Mahabharata war, a skirmish of ten lords occurred in the Kurukshetra locale. In any case, it was the Mahabharata battled for the most elevated estimations of nobility which provided for the area overall popularity as a result of the significant and advanced idea clarified in the blessed Bhagavadgita by Lord Krishna presented to the trembling Arjuna.

The area has been the scene of numerous a war on account of its being 'A Gateway to North India'. As years moved by, progressive surges of the Huns, the Turks and the Tughlaqs attacked India and definitive fights were battled on this land. Toward the finish of the 14 century, Tamur drove a military through this zone to Delhi. Afterward, the Mughals vanquished the Lodhis in the notable skirmish of Panipat in the year 1526. Another definitive fight was battled in the year 1556 at this very site, building up the matchless quality of the Mughals for quite a long time to come. Towards the center of the eighteenth century, the Marathas had built up their influence over Haryana. The interruption of Ahmed Shah Durrani into India, coming full circle Maratha authority and the fast decay of the Mughal domain, driving at last to the approach of the British standard.
